

map key

Blue Trail

The Blue Trail is paved and follows the route of the old railroad bed. The trail runs from Seneca Road which is the border between Rapids and Port Edwards. You can travel north to West Grand Avenue. Along the way you will go through numerous wetland and forest areas as well as passing the City Zoo. Options: Just south of the City Zoo you can cross over to join the Red Trail. At West Grand Avenue you might cross the Riverview Expressway and connect with the Green Trail. The Blue Trail is 3.1 miles long.

Green Trail

The Green Trail follows the Riverview Expressway east through the city. When you get to the intersection of Hwy. 54 and the Expressway, you can continue east on County Hwy. W into the Town of Grand Rapids. The Green Trail also travels north to Reddin Road. The Green Trail is 6.6 miles long.

Purple Trail

This widely paved trail starts where Hwy. 54 and County Hwy. W meet. Proceed north on 54, crossing Washington Street. Two blocks north of Washington Street, the trail goes through a pedestrian underpass emerging at Robinson Park. If you cross Hwy. 54 at Washington Street, you can continue north over the railroad overpass to Spring Street. From there, go west on Spring Street to First Street and connect with the Red Trail. The Purple Trail is 3.8 miles long.

Red Trail

The Red Trail begins at Ben Hanson Park. (parking available) The paved trail runs along the Wisconsin River through Ben Hanson and Lyons Parks, and passes under the Riverview Expressway Bridge. The trail follows First Avenue to Grand Avenue. Cross Grand Avenue Bridge into Veterans and Mead Rapids Parks. The trail resumes its northward trek along First Street in the Village of Biron. The Red Trail is 3.8 miles long.

Yellow Trail

This trail begins at Demitz Park on Third Street and East Riverview Expressway. When you cross the Riverview Expressway going south Third Street becomes First Street. Walk along the trail to Two Mile Avenue. Options: Join the Airport trail at Two Mile Avenue where it turns east to Sampson Street then south to Griffith Avenue. You can then proceed east along Griffith Avenue to Nepco Lake Park. The Yellow Trail is 4.1 miles long.

wisconsin rapids bicycle trails

